“ Oh what can i say about Elmer? Besides being my brother-in-law,he was my good friend! I worked for him, we had alot of good times together! When we would go out whether it's was to throw darts on our many dart teams or just to hang out we would always end the night with a big platter of fries piled high with cheese,he loved it that way! If it wouldn't of been for my buddy Elmer I wouldn't of met Shirley, I never did thank him for that! He would of done anything for anyone, that's just how he was! I love that man and I miss him already! RIP ELMER!

“ Deepest Sympathies from Mike and Marilyn Thomas. Elmer and Mike grew up together from 7 years on and were best friends for a long time. Sadly, we lost touch over the years. He was always there for someone if they needed him. Elmer introduced us in high school. We consider that his best gift to us ever. We are truly sorry for the loss of this good person...he will definitely be missed. Oh, the memories!
