“Ruth lived across the street from my family on Harding. When my husband and I had our kids, she was always the first to bring over a gift for them. We loved her dearly and my kids grew to love her too. We moved, but continued to stop by at least once a year and send a Christmas card to her too. She always greeted us with a smile and an open heart and welcomed us into her house to chat. I will deeply miss her as will my husband, Joel, and boys, Ben and Daniel.

*Love,
Kathy Hackney*
