“ I met one of Sherry's sisters today at CATO's in Harrison. I couldn't stop thinking of her as the day went on. Even thou we didn't exchange names I felt in the few mins that we talked that she is a wonderful person. I felt the love she had for Sherry and all of her family. What a blessing to have such a close family. I am so sorry for all the grief your family is going thru during this time. But I'm sure the love and memories will stay with you forever. God Bless you all and I'll be praying for you as you said you would pray for me!

“ My deepest sympathy.
If it offers some comfort, I know that I, and many husbands who received this news here at work, went home and held our wives and told them we love them and appreciated them, now, more than ever.
God Bless

“ I am deeply sadden by Sherry's passing. It is a great loss to all that knew this loving, funny, fun loving lady.

Just days before hearing of her passing while mowing the grass, I thought of something she said on one of our camping trips about Pat mowing the grass. Sherry said " Pat didn't need to mow the grass, he just moved the camper to a different spot in the yard to kill the grass". This is the memory I will hold in my heart of Sherry Dean, making us all laugh at Pat's expense.

My deepest sympathy to Pat and the family of which we all knew Sherry was so proud and loved so dearly.
